

SJP Comes to India!

Give your feet a treat in Carrie Bradshaw style! A luxury footwear brand SJP curated by the actress, designer, and style icon Sarah Jessica Parker is making its entry into the Indian market. The credit of bringing the international brand that was founded in 2014 goes to a formidable name of the fashion industry, Jayna Lakhiani. On realizing the potential of a brand that captures the essence of New York City, Jayna curated a lineup of shoes for the festive season keeping in mind the fashion needs of a modern Indian woman. The SJP shoes are handcrafted in Italy with each shoe telling a different story of a woman. These shoes find their uniqueness as it promotes women to break free from regular fashion and take the risk.

Paul Adams: of handcrafted luxury, perfection and class

Paul Adams is an established name in handcrafted ultra-premium handbag and accessories segment. The brand is all about exclusivity and creativity with courage and offers a whole range of bespoke men and women bags. The organisation recently embarked upon '#ArtEverywhere', a collection that highlights the pieces with original artwork painted on a specialised canvas with acrylic paints and is created by the in-house team of passionate artists on Paul Adams bags. The art on each piece is hand created with no machine or print based replication. Every product is accompanied with a Letter of Authentication. The collections are currently available online on the website and are also present at selected luxury boutiques in Dubai, Mumbai and Madrid.
