

Sharing the Story

by Giving a Lasting Gift

‘Sharing the Story’ has been the theme of our Centenary year at BRF and we have so enjoyed hearing the stories and testimonies of those who have in some way been impacted by the work of our ministries across the years since 1922. When Revd. Leslie Mannering founded BRF for the ‘purpose of deepening the life of prayer, Bible reading and Holy communion’ in his congregation at St Matthew’s Church, Brixton, he said, ‘we will make the venture, believing that God calls us to this’. He envisioned a vibrant community of faith with well-watered, deep roots and believed that St Matthew’s would be a mighty spiritual force in the parish.

The Fellowship of St Matthew soon became the Bible Reading Fellowship and 100 years later, through our current ministries- Living Faith, Anna Chaplaincy, Messy Church and Parenting for Faith, we are continuing to further Revd. Mannering’s vision of vibrant Christian communities grounded in prayer, scripture and fellowship throughout the UK and the world.

Although our Centenary year is drawing to a close, we want to continue to share the story and this Christmas we would like to encourage you to share the story by giving a lasting gift to someone. We have a fantastic range of books and resources that make for great gifts across all ages and church traditions. From whole year gifts across Bible and prayer, to fun gifts for both kids and adults, and thoughtful gift subscriptions for family and friends, you can be part of sharing the story and supporting the work of BRF for generations to come.

Parenting Teens for a Life of Faith

There is no doubt that parenting teens has its challenges. The once-small children we had are pulling away from us, growing in independence and making decisions with bigger consequences. It can be easy to think we are less influential in their lives, particularly when it comes to faith. But that is not true. Parents remain the significant spiritual influencer in a teen's life, and they need us to help them navigate the world and faith together.
