What we do

BRF is a Christian charity whose work today resources...

Christian growth and understanding of the Bible

Through our Bible reading notes, books, digital resources, Quiet Days and events, we're resourcing individuals, groups and leaders in churches for their own spiritual journey and their ministry.

Church outreach in the local community

BRF is the home of three programmes that churches are embracing to great effect as they seek to engage with their local communities and transform lives.

Teaching Christianity in primary schools

Our Barnabas in Schools team is working with primary-aged children and their teachers, enabling them to explore Christianity creatively within the school curriculum.

Children's and family ministry

We are working with churches and families via our resources for churches and our Faith in Homes initiatives, enabling under-11s and the adults working with them to explore Christianity creatively.

At The Bible Reading Fellowship, we are passionate about providing the best possible resources to equip people in their ministry – whatever form that ministry might take. We've selected some of our best titles for people in positions of leadership in churches. We hope that, whatever you are doing, our resources will enable you to make it even more successful.

BRF needs your support

Much of what we do at BRF is only made possible through the generous support of individuals, churches and charitable trusts. The income from the sales of our Bible reading notes and other resources covers the costs of producing them, and the fees charged for some of the training we lead in schools contribute to the costs of providing them. However, we are dependent on the financial support of those who share the vision for what we are doing and want to enable us to continue to make a difference.

Lucy Moore

The no. 1 book for giving you a vision and philosophy for all-age worship

All-Age Worship

fully revised and updated

Fully revised and updated, this book is for leaders who sense that worshipping God together is probably a good thing, but are nervous of trying to lead their church towards that vision. Lucy examines what church worship should be about, the role that 'relationship' has to play in church services and why all-age worship is a helpful way forward, despite being so difficult to achieve well. Lucy also offers some basic rules for running all-age services, service examples and advice on how to help congregations adjust to the change.

pb, 978 0 85746 522 1, 192 pages, £8.99

Lucy Moore is the BRF Messy Church team leader.

Help! It's the All-Age Slot

52 instant talk outlines for church services

Rebecca Parkinson

Ready-made sessions, one for every week of the year, covering Christmas, Easter and other significant Christian festivals, as well as themed sessions that can be used any time. The talks are easy to use, take between 10 and 15 minutes, are all-age in presentation and need little preparation time. The handy appendix lists the set readings from the lectionary for each festival, allowing for easy insertion into the church service.

pb, 978 0 85746 023 3, 256 pages, £9.99

Rebecca Parkinson is a trained teacher and experienced children's and youth worker.

80 Creative Prayer Ideas

A resource for church and group use

Claire Daniel

A step-by-step guide to getting started with prayer stations, providing a complete 'toolbox' of ideas, ready to use and clearly set out. Includes a Bible reflection, a list of what to prepare and suggested prayer points. Many of the ideas include Bible verses or objects to keep as part of the response.

pb, 978 1 84101 688 7, 192 pages, £8.99

Claire Daniel has led creative prayer sessions for a variety of age groups across the UK.

Thinking of You

A resource for the spiritual care of people with dementia

Thinking of You is a comprehensive introduction to the subject of dementia. This accessible book is a practical resource for those directly affected by the condition, their immediate family and carers, and those seeking to offer them pastoral care and encourage continuing spiritual growth. Importantly, the author addresses the spiritual care of the affected individual and how to help churches support them and their carers. The final section includes resources for ministry in residential care homes.

Bible reflections for older people

Edited by Eley McAinsh

New from The Gift of Years, these Bible reflections, produced three times a year, are written by older people for older people and are designed to bring hope, assurance and sustenance, reminding the reader of the presence and love of God. In each issue are 40 Bible reflections and prayer suggestions to use and revisit as often as is needed, either individually or in groups. In the centre pages, Debbie Thrower of BRF's The Gift of Years ministry brings stories, ideas and encouragement.

In the most recent issue, retired Archdeacon Roger Combes considers how to be well content in every stage of life. Oncologist, priest and broadcaster Erica Roberts delights in God's constant reminder that we are never alone. David Blair, a Christian charity worker for over 60 years and expert in Eastern Europe, reflects on the promise and the challenge of forgiveness for all. Joanna Collicutt, lecturer, writer and Advisor for Spiritual Care of Older People, shares her hope of heaven.

A daily companion to keep by your side

Bible Reflections for Older People is published three times a year, in January, May and September.

Living Liturgies

Transition time resources for services, prayer and conversation with older people

Caroline George

Living Liturgies provides practical help for leaders who want to plan services away from traditional church, with formats that engage older people. The simple themed liturgies have been tried and tested by Caroline in Birmingham. They follow the pattern of a condensed version of an Anglican service of the word, with an opening conversation starter, visual aids and a time for reflection added to the familiar hymns, readings and blessings.

Caroline George has worked extensively with older adults and runs a home group for senior citizens.

Bible readings for special times

These 32-page booklets offer undated reflections, drawing on a range of Bible passages. They offer ways of connecting more closely with God and drawing strength, peace and security from the knowledge of his presence.

CONFIDENCE IN THE LIVING GOD

David and Goliath revisited

Andrew Watson

Using the story of David and Goliath as a diving board, Andrew Watson plunges into the theme of biblical confidence, showing how we can grow in terms of confidence in our personal faith, confidence in the church and confidence in the Lord.

He considers, too, how we can confidently tackle the challenges of day-to-day living, whether a difficult work situation or family relationship, or simply anxiety about the future. The book includes a study guide and is ideal as a whole-church course on the subject of confidence.

Stepping into Grace

Moving beyond ambition to contemplative mission

Paul Bradbury

Journey with the prophet Jonah, exploring the major themes of ambition, vocation, spirituality, mission, leadership and personal growth. Written by a fellow pioneer minister, Stepping into Grace finds powerful connections between the call and mission of Jonah and the mission context of our own time. This unique journey takes us to a place of grace where the work of God in shaping who we are finds space alongside what we feel called to do.

CHRISTMAS THROUGH THE KEYHOLE

Luke's glimpses of Advent

DEREK TIDBALL

The songs of Mary, Zechariah, Simeon and the angels at Bethlehem in Luke's Gospel reveal the truth of Christmas, that 'in the town of David a Saviour has been born to us'. Acclaimed writer and conference speaker Derek Tidball leads us through these songs, demonstrating the gracious purposes of God that they celebrate in the birth of Jesus Christ. Turn your Advent season into a time of gratitude and worship this year, and experience these songs afresh.

Derek Tidball is a Baptist pastor. He was formerly the Principal of London Bible College (now London School of Theology), the President of the Baptist Union of Great Britain and the Chair of the Evangelical Alliance Council. He is a prolific writer and a speaker in demand around the world.

BRF Advent book 2017

The Word was God

Short reflections for Advent

Andy John

Andy John offers bite-sized reflections for every day from 1 December to Christmas Eve, based on readings from the prologue to John's Gospel, one of the best-loved Christmas Bible readings. The meditative style of the book encourages readers to slow down and savour every one of the familiar words, to find much-needed refreshment for themselves as well as inspiration for sharing with others.

pb, 978 0 85746 424 8, 112 pages, £6.99

Andy John has been Bishop of Bangor since 2008 and is a contributor to New Daylight. He has a particular interest in the relationship between the gospel and culture (especially art and music).

Lighted Windows

An Advent calendar for a world in waiting

Margaret Silf

As we approach the Christmas season, we prepare to celebrate the coming to the earth of someone who really does make a difference. At this season, the 'windows' of our human experience can change from rows of faceless panes, perhaps grimy with dirt, into lighted windows that open up new possibilities. The journey mapped out in this book is an invitation to look into some of these lighted windows, and discover a few reflections of what we wait for and long for – reflections of God's guidance, and his call to trust him and live by his wisdom.

pb, 978 0 85746 432 3, 192 pages, £7.99

Margaret Silf is an ecumenical Christian, committed to working across and beyond denominational divides.

Steve Brady

Towards Jerusalem

BRF Lent book 2018

A pilgrim's regress and progress to God's Holy City

God has an agenda for cities. Steve Brady is convinced of it. The Bible is full of significant cities and the biblical story is full of imagery of cities – culminating in the Holy City, birthed in and through his people. Towards Jerusalem is a unique Lent book, a call to live for a vision bigger than ourselves, marching to a different drumbeat towards 'Zion', God's New Jerusalem, and all that this means in transformative terms for today's Christian believer.

pb, 978 085746 560 3, 184 pages, £7.99, published November 2017

Steve Brady has been in full-time Christian ministry for over 40 years, is Principal of Moorlands College, holds a PhD in theology and serves as a trustee of the Keswick Convention.

Encountering the Risen Christ

From Easter to Pentecost: the message of the resurrection and how it can change us

Mark Bradford

The risen Jesus came to his disciples in their brokenness and called them to a future filled with joy, forgiveness and new beginnings. This book offers seven chapters plus discussion material for the seven weeks of the Easter season, reflecting on the main characters in the post-resurrection accounts and showing how we, like the disciples, can encounter Christ in a life-transforming way.

pb, 978 0 85746 428 6, 160 pages, £7.99

Mark Bradford is in full-time Church of England ministry.

David Runcorn is a bestselling author and a respected spiritual guide.

OUTDOOR CHURCH

20 sessions to take church outside the building for children and families

Sally Welch

A creative worship and activity resource for churches to use outside the church building, suitable for churches in urban, suburban and rural contexts. With four sessions to each season, four stand-alone service outlines, all-age activities, indoor alternatives for rainy days and great material based on Bible stories and parables, this is a must-have!

pb, 978 0 85746 416 3, 208 pages, £8.99

Sally Welch is a parish priest in the Diocese of Oxford who has spent many years working with families and young children. The author of several books, including Edible Bible Crafts (Barnabas for Children, 2014), Sally is also the editor of BRF's New Daylight series of Bible reading notes.

Resourcing Rural Ministry

Practical insights for mission

Simon Martin

Includes case studies and workbook material, offering practical guidance and suggested actions as well as an examination of multi-church ministry and links to the Arthur Rank Centre's training programmes, web-based resources and publications.

The Contemplative Minister

Learning to lead from the still centre

Ian Cowley

The Contemplative Minister offers direction for contemplative leaders in the 21st century. Ian Cowley draws on his South African roots and the influence of contemplative leaders such as Desmond Tutu to show practically how to prioritise a relationship with God and lead others into that relationship, creating a shared ministry that allows leaders to nurture faith and spirituality amid a hectic life.

pb, 978 0 85746 360 9, 160 pages, £8.99

Called by God

Exploring our identity in Christ

Derek Tidball

In an age in which it seems that everyone is concerned with their own identity, popular author and conference speaker Derek Tidball examines twelve key New Testament passages which go right to the heart of the matter. Identity for Christians, the Bible says, is rooted in who we are in Jesus Christ. Reflecting on Christian vocation, the author draws us back to see how the Bible speaks about the nature of who we have become by faith. Each chapter ends with questions, opening the reader to thoughtful and practical response.

pb, 978 0 85746 530 6, 160 pages, £7.99

Derek Tidball is a Baptist pastor. He was formerly the Principal of London Bible College (now London School of Theology), the President of the Baptist Union of Great Britain and the Chair of the Evangelical Alliance Council.

Using the doctrines of the Trinity and Christology, as well as key passages throughout scripture, he shows how such church reproduction expresses its nature, while serving the kingdom and mission of God. The book also includes examples drawn from past and present church

How people engage with God today and how the church
can help

David Walker replaces the old and worn division between 'members' and 'non-members' of church with a fourfold model of belonging: through relationship, through place, through events and through activities. Based on extensive practical research, this book shows how 'belonging' can encompass a far wider group of people than those who attend weekly services.

pb, 978 0 85746 467 5, 160 pages, £7.99

David Walker is Bishop of Manchester, a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, a member of the Rural Theology Association and the Church of England Ministry Council, as well as one of the Church Commissioners for England.

Ancient discipleship for modern Christians

Simon Reed

One of the most pressing issues in today's church is encouraging people to become true and effective disciples of Jesus Christ. The Celtic and Desert Christians, drawing on Old and New Testament practices, taught and modelled how to do this through the practice of living by a Way of Life. Followers of the Way inspires authentic

Christian discipleship in the contemporary world.

pb, 978 0 85746 538 2, 160 pages, £7.99

Simon Reed is an Anglican minister with two churches in Ealing, West London. He is also one of the three Guardians of the Community of Aidan and Hilda.

Jesus through the Old Testament

Transform your Bible understanding

Graeme Goldsworthy

Confident in the Old Testament? Enjoying reading it? Happy to preach from it?

In this engaging book, Graeme Goldsworthy reflects with clarity and practical insight on reading and using the Old Testament. By showing us how Jesus is central to the Old Testament's message, he encourages us to reinstate it as essential and transformative to our lives, churches and mission in today's world. The author asks important questions: Where is Jesus in the whole biblical storyline? How does the kingdom of God relate to him? In what way is he central to the divine revelation? This is a must-read for those who wish to transform their biblical understanding.

Graeme Goldsworthy is an Australian Anglican and a well-known Old Testament scholar. Formerly a parish minister, he lectured on the Old Testament, biblical theology and hermeneutics at Moore Theological College in Sydney.

pb, 978 0 85746 567 2, 144 pages, £7.99,
published October 2017

Guidelines is a unique Bible reading resource that offers four months of in-depth study, drawing on the insights of current scholarship. Its intention is to enable all its readers to interpret and apply the biblical text with confidence in today's world, while helping to equip church leaders as they meet the challenges of mission and disciple-building.

Instead of the usual dated daily readings, Guidelines provides weekly units, broken into six sections, plus an introduction giving context for the passage and a final section of points for thought and prayer. On any day you can read as many or as few sections as you wish. As well as a copy of Guidelines, you will need a Bible.

Guidelines is commissioned by David Spriggs, previously Dean of Studies at Bible Society.

BRF Bible reading notes are published three times a year, in January, May and September.

Parenting Children series

by Rachel Turner

Our churches have the power to establish a community of purpose that all people participate in. We can be the place where children feel most powerful, most seen, most disciplined and most released. We can be the church that God designed. Rachel Turner's practical and tested handbooks explore the possibilities for helping children to discover their specific gifts for what God is calling them to be, and how parents might partner with churches to enable children to discover their true identity and purpose in life and walk alongside them on the journey.

Addressing issues of identity, relationship, purpose, power, love, calling and response, each chapter includes true stories and questions to help us reflect on our own experiences.

PAUL AND HIS FRIENDS IN LEADERSHIP

HOW THEY CHANGED THE WORLD

Paul W. Barnett

Transform the way you look at leadership in the church by looking at how the apostle Paul's relationships with key individuals displayed his humanity, faith, leadership qualities and confidence in God. Through looking at Paul, we can see how crucial authentic relationships are to mission today.

published October 2017

Paul W. Barnett is a former Bishop of North Sydney, Australia, and lecturer in New Testament at Moore College, Sydney. He is the author of many well-received and influential books on the New Testament. His two interests are Christian ministry and the world of the early church. His passion is to encourage the practice of biblical principles for ministry in today's world.
