From Lesson 49

Jesus described the Pharisees as evil shepherds in John 10. The prophet Zechariah, who lived after the captivity, and who urged the people of Israel to rebuild the temple under the leadership of Ezra, also described false shepherds. He knew about them from bitter experience.

Read Zechariah 11:15-17 carefully, and choose three of the evil deeds of the foolish shepherds of Zechariah's prophecy in these verses. Then show how similar these shepherds were to the Pharisees of Jesus' day. Use complete sentences.

Taking the theme of this vocabulary review from the account of the fish with the Roman coin in its mouth, which Jesus told Simon Peter to catch (Lesson 45, B, 3), you will draw lines with colored pencils from the definitions on the fish to the matching words on the coin which came out of its mouth.
