The Compress 3000 heat pump extracts heat from the air and transfers it into the water. This makes it up to 65% more energy efficient than a conventional electric storage hot water system.

Increased rebates now available
Efficient heating down to -7°C
Note: Heat pumps use the ambient temperature in surrounding air to heat water in the tank. This means as the air temperature around the tank decreases, the time taken to heat the full tank increases.

Distributed by:
Reduction Revolution Pty Ltd