This song is a great for any beginner or intermediate looking for a chord changing exercise!
Listen to the song for when to switch between the Verse and Chorus sections.
Feel free to use any roll pattern you like.
For those of you who have Winston Style, try to find all the inversions of each chord and create different ways to play each section!

Intro/Verse

Bm                                                        F#

A                                                          E

G                                                         D

Em                                                        F#

Chorus

G                                                        D

Tune the top string down 1/2 step.
F#  Bm

G  D

Em  F#