

BRANCH

ROUND 210 SUSPENSION

What makes this piece special is its distinctive and organic look/feel. On a practical level, it does not offer a tremendous amount of light--it gives beautiful soft light, aimed at ambiance. A stunning and organic fixture, more a lit sculpture of the flowerhead that inspired it.

The petals are actually little caps that snap on over the LEDs and you can rotate them freely, though this has no effect on the light or its directionality. It simply allows you to arrange them if you wish.

A stunning and statement-making light, but the way the LED "buds" extend from the "branches" creates a festive ambiance without detracting from the modern, sophisticated aesthetic.
