Instructions:

This project makes an approximately 7.5" long bracelet. You can add or subtract links as needed for a longer or shorter bracelet.

1. Begin by opening a jump ring and linking it to one half of your toggle clasp and one end of a 19,5mm vintage lucite rivoli pendant link. Close the jump ring. On the other end of the rivoli connect another jump ring and also link it to one end of a 22mm rivoli pendant link. Close the jump ring. Keep connecting pendant links together with jump rings until your final bracelet has the following order of components connected: 1 part of the toggle clasp, 19.5mm pendant link, 22mm pendant link, 25mm pendant link, 25mm pendant link, 25mm pendant link, 22mm pendant link, 19.5mm pendant link, other end of the toggle clasp.
2. Enjoy!
