Chapters 27 - 30

1. Briefly state what the truck drivers want.

The truckers want all pushcart peddlers banned, pushcarts banned, Maxie Hammerman fined $60,000 and jailed for 60 years, and the Police Commissioner fired.

2. Why do the pushcarts plan the peace march?

If the trucks hit pushcarts, everyone will see who is breaking the truce, and that the hitting is not accidental.

3. (Vocabulary)

4. What did Mack do? Why did he do it?

Mack rammed into the pushcarts' Peace March. Mack saw Morris again blocking his way. He had had a grudge against Morris ever since he had smashed his cart, because Morris had put him in a bad light with his wife.

Chapters 31 - 33

1. What has Mayor Cudd done to make the pushcart peddlers angry? Mayor Cudd suspended all their licenses.

2. (Vocabulary)

3. How does Frank the Flower win a "psychological victory" over Albert P. Mack?

Frank didn't seem to mind being in jail. He received letters from hundreds of fans. Maxie sent him war reports. Frank cheerfully believed the pushcarts were winning. He played darts, with trucks on his dart board. All this made Mack lose his confidence.

4. In the space remaining, write a letter to the editor defending the pushcarts. These will vary, of course!

Chapter 34 - 36

1. Summarize the Battle of Bleeker Street.

Many pushcarts were lined up on Bleeker Street selling fruits and vegetables when some trucks came down the street. A woman threw a cantaloupe through the open window of a truck, and other people also began pelting the trucks. The drivers fled.

2. What happened at the Pushcart Peace Conference?

Mammoth Moving had to pay for Mack's damages. Mack's license was revoked. The trucks had to be smaller and fewer.

3. Give your opinion of the book. Back up what you say with specific reasons. opinion

Animal Farm

Chapter 1

1. How have Mr. Jones and the other people made the animals' lives difficult and dangerous?

Their lives are miserable, laborious, and short. They are underfed, worked to the last atom of their strength, and then cruelly killed. Pigs, cows, hens, and sheep are killed for food.

2. How does old Major the boar suggest that the animals can solve their problems?

Major wants the animals to overthrow the human race.

3. What rules does Major say the animals ought to follow?

No animal must ever live in a house, or sleep in a bed, or wear clothes, or drink alcohol, or smoke tobacco, or touch money, or engage in trade, or tyrannize over its own kind, or kill any other animal.

4. (Vocabulary)

Chapter 2

1. How are Snowball and Napoleon different?

Snowball was vivacious, quicker in speech, more inventive. Napoleon was large, fierce-looking, not much of a talker and used to getting his way.

2. What objections did some of the animals have against the planned Rebellion?

Some were concerned about the duty of loyalty to Mr. Jones. Who will feed us? Why should we care what happens after we are dead? Why work for something that's sure to happen anyway?

3. Summarize the overthrow of Mr. Jones.

The animals were so hungry they broke into the feed bins. Jones and his four men tried to chase them off with whips, but the animals retaliated, and their tormentors took to their heels.

4. What do you expect will happen to the milk? opinion

5. (Vocabulary)
