Preface

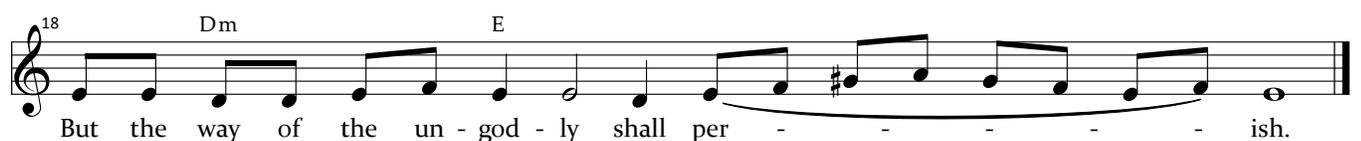

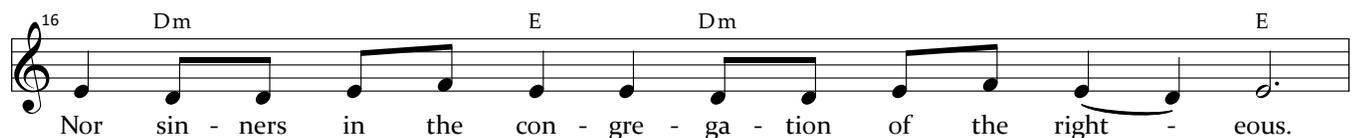

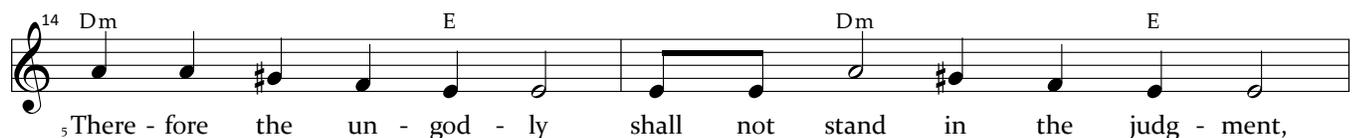

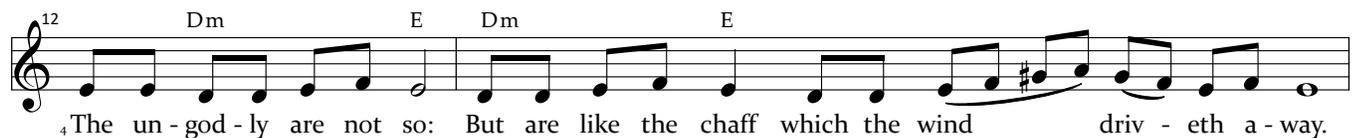

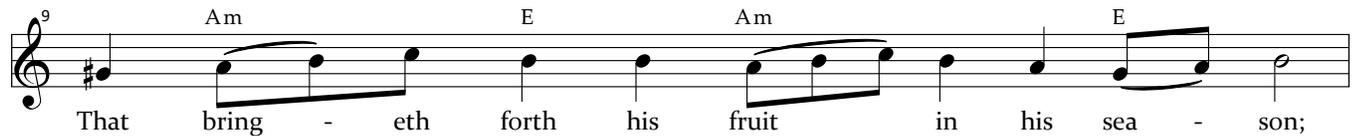

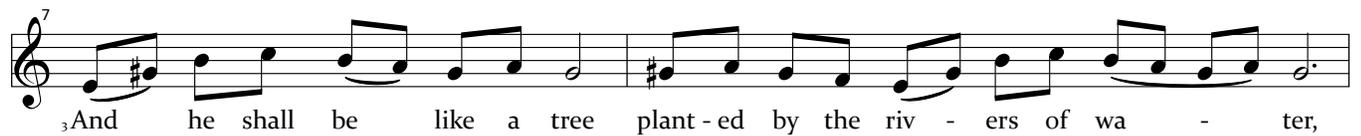

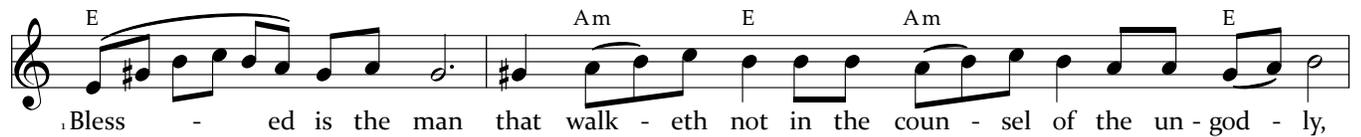

*Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom,
Teaching and admonishing one another
In psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs,
Singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.
Colossians 3:16*

This collection of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs was written out of a desire to sing God's word as it appears in the Bible (NKJV or KJV) in order to memorize it and grow thereby, as we are instructed in Colossians. With congregational examples of such musical settings being almost non-existent, I set forth to write settings of my own in the context of local church music ministry: Trinity Church in Kirkland, WA (2002–2008) and Christ Church in Moscow, ID (2008–present). Without particular models to imitate, I have drawn on various historic styles, incorporating and/or parodying them into my songs. A wide variety of scales and modes, meters and forms have been employed to serve and highlight the structure of the poetry (Hebrew parallelism, chiasmus, etc.). Chant, Lutheran hymnody, Genevan psalmody, folk song, marches, Baroque dances, and more have served as sources. In all cases, my intent has been for the music to serve and glorify the word.

Learning new music, particularly in unfamiliar styles or forms, takes some effort and diligence. As God Himself calls us to sing new songs so too will He also provide us with means to accomplish this. I pray that this collection, along with the recordings found at www.christkirk.com/resources/music, might prove useful to all who would endeavor to learn them and be attended with the blessings and promises of God associated with His holy Word. May God use these meager offerings to spread His Word, strengthen His people, and glorify His name.

Soli Deo Gloria.

To the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. A Psalm of David.

1 O LORD, our Lord, How ex-cel-lent is Your name in all the earth,
 3 Who have set Your glo-ry a-bove the heav'ns!
 4 Out of the mouth of babes and nursing in-fants You have ordained strength, Be-cause of Your en-e-mies,
 6 That You may si-lence the en-e-e-my and the a-veng-er.
 7 When I con-sid-er Your heav'ns, the work of Your fingers, The moon and the stars, which You have ordained,
 9 What is man that You are mind-ful of him, And the son of man that You vis-it him?
 11 For You have made him a lit-tle low-er than the angels, And You have crowned him with glo-ry and hon-or.
 13 You have made him to have dom-in-ion o-ver the works of Your hands;
 14 You have put all things un-der his feet, All sheep and ox-en— E-ven the beasts of the field,
 16 The birds of the air, And the fish of the sea That pass through the paths of the seas.
 18 O LORD, our Lord, How ex-cel-lent is Your name in all the earth.
