Why do we do it the way we do?

Simple. It's all about family.

We offer the freshest meats and make our sausage using our family recipes that have brought smiles to the faces of families across Texas and beyond.

The Miiller family has come a long way since those days on the ranch when Dad used a hand-crank sausage stuffer and dried jerky on the clothes line.

While we have one foot planted firmly in the 21st century today, we're never going to change our time-honored traditions of offering high quality meats and friendly service that began decades ago.
