Since 1930, we have become the Midwest's foremost recycler of industrial textiles that we reimagine into the most comprehensive and complete line of "soft" tools for use or resale. In addition to our manufactured goods, we source from a world wide array of vendors that are dedicated to our mission of supplying a green, sustainable alternative to current market offerings where possible. Our vendors are run through a lens of sustainability. We strive to recycle existing materials whenever we can, giving them a second life. If sustainability is the heart of what we do, then the quality of our products are the legs we stand on.

Our motto, 'Your Vision. Our Goal.' is not just a tagline, it's our core mission. It's what gets us up each morning. We take pride in finding the best solutions for jobs traditionally done another way. Our work with specialized industries has molded our offerings as time tested products with outstanding performance history.
