To Whom it May Concern,

This letter is to confirm that JoyLabz LLC is the sole-source developer and manufacturer of Makey Makey® branded products – including the Makey Makey® Classic, Makey Makey® STEM Pack, Makey Makey® Booster Kits, Makey Makey® Backpacks, and Makey Makey® GO – and sole owner of all copyrighted content and materials, patentable designs and processes, trademarks, and intellectual property used in the development and presentation of Makey Makey® products.

Makey Makey products – including the Makey Makey® STEM Pack – Classroom Invention Literacy Kit – are unique STE(A)M learning tools that foster creative confidence while providing scaffolding for students to explore coding and computer science. Unlike other edtech products, the Makey Makey platform was developed by doctoral researchers at MIT Media Lab to support both educators and their students in learning through hands-on exploration and discovery.

At this time, JoyLabz LLC is the sole source seller of Makey Makey® Booster Kits, Makey Makey® Backpacks, including the Makey Makey® Bananaversary Backpack Bundle, and Makey Makey Accessories, including the Makey Makey® Conductive Pencil Set, the Makey Makey® USB-C Cable, and Makey Makey® Conductive Fabric Tape Refill Packs.

Additionally, JoyLabz LLC is the sole-source supplier of manufacturer-provided professional development (PD) workshops – including the Makey Makey® Certified Educator Workshop.
