DIEGO DINING CHAIR

- Diego is a part of our sustainable recycling initiative. The chair's seat and back are constructed from reused oil drums that have been hand cut and shaped to form comfortable curves, and stripped of paint. The chair surfaces have some original texture artistically preserved to make each one unique.
- The frame is hand bent iron tubing which has been solid welded.
- Clear finished for indoor use.
- Stackable.
- The recycled oil drum collection also features other items, dining and lounge chairs, as well as counter and bar stools, and storage.
- Hand made in Central Java, Indonesia.
