KUMIKI DINING CHAIR

- The Kumiki chair exemplifies Japanese minimalism and precision with its interlocking wooden frame and simple woven seat. The frame features traditional mortise and tenon joinery. The rope provides supportive seat with plenty of comfort.
- Outdoor grade item.
- Non-stackable frame.
- Also available in a version with rattan seat for indoor; as a counter and bar stool.
- All wood is sustainably sourced from local plantations. Hand made in Central Java, Indonesia.
