TEAK ROOT BALL SCULPTURE

- Left as they have been created by the nature, and hand shaped to a sphere, the sculpture balls are unique and loved by many in residential and retail settings alike.

- Elements-resistant teak wood. If left outdoors, the surface will acquire elegant grey patina.

- Balls are made of solid wood rescued from unused root of the tree. Crevices are unique and natural. No two pieces are alike.

- Various sizes available. Sizes are approximate.

- All wood is sustainably sourced from local plantations. Hand made in Central Java, Indonesia.

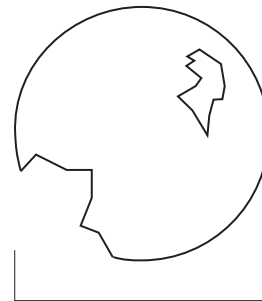

DIAMETER: 5 / 8 / 12 / 16 / 20 / 24 in
