Desert Dew Drops Wall Hanging

Design by Dianne Hunt

Wall hangings can be a fantastic way to decorate your home and add a splash of color to a bare wall. The Desert Dew Drops Wall Hanging features a backdrop of different greenish hues with gold white tones. These colors resemble the beautiful and subtle colors in the gorgeous turquoise gemstone and the gold and white colors of the desert sands. Add i-cord “dew drops” that linger on desert flowers before the morning sun rises. The simplicity yet elegance of the Desert Dew Drops Wall Hanging is a great match to your home.

Notes

The Back Curtain is worked using the single crochet stitch in the back loop only throughout.

Ch 1 does not count as a stitch.

CA - Surf, CB - Peninsula, CC - Ambrosia,
CD - Snow, CE - Fawn

Each color section measures a different size. From the bottom up they measure (approx.): 1st & 2nd, 5"; 3rd & 4th, 4", and 5th & 6th, 3".

For the i-cords, leave one end at least 6" long; you're going to use this end to attach the i-cord to the back curtain.

You may block your Back Curtain and i-cords to relax the pieces but not necessary.

I-Cords

Step 1: Using your Lucet Fork, make 12 i-cords in varying lengths.

Step 2: Make 4 i-cords that measure approx. 22" long. Two in CC, and two in CD.

Step 3: Make 4 i-cords that measure approx. 18" long. Two in CC, and two in CD.

Step 4: Make 2 i-cords in CE that measure approx. 14" long.

Step 5: Make 2 i-cords in CE that measure approx. 10" long.

Tassel

Make 1 tassel in any color you'd like. The sample uses Peninsula.

Assembly and Finishing

Block Back Curtain and I-cords (the sample was misted with water in a spray bottle), and laid flat to dry.

Weave in ends for the back curtain. For the i-cords, weave in one end but leave the other end.

Assembly:

Step 1: Attach the Back Curtain to the dowel rod by crocheting the single crochet stitch around the dowel rod. Use any color yarn you want. I used the same colored yarn as the top row of the Back Curtain.

Step 2: From the left of the Back Curtain, attach the i-cords in the following sequence: 22" CC, 22" CD, 18" CC, 18" CD, 14" CE, 10" CE. You will start at the 4th stitch from the left, then attach the remaining at every 2 stitches.

From the right of the Back Curtain, attach the i-cords following the same sequence as the left side instructions above.

Attach the tassel to the center space in between both sides of the i-cords.
