Sewing through both layers at once, stitch the eyes onto either side the body between rounds 5 and 10 of the body. They should be right above the outer edge of each foot. Weave in the ends.

Using black fabric paint, daub a circle on each eye for the pupils. You can also accomplish this with a small circle of black felt and fabric glue.

Mouth

Using scrap yarn, embroider a simple, single line between rounds 7-8 of the frog body. The outer edges of the line should line up with the outer edges of the tummy color changes.
