My name is Michael Rapetti. I'm the founder of Motoring Club and Motoring Coffee. I've always been fascinated with cars.

So six years ago I decided to start The Motoring Club. Moving to L.A., I've defined more of my personal style, which is that mix between being fashionable but also being a little more casual. That blend of my lifestyle is exactly where Rails fits in.
