

"When I was 11, in 1962 in Boston, our cook gave me the new 45 record Don't Hang Up, by the Orlons—a pop song with an infectious beat and signature Philadelphia sound. It opened the door to a world of art and music beyond the segregated world I was living in."

—Mary Fulham, managing director, La MaMa Experimental Theater Club

Four Seasons summer earrings.
Proceed with caution. At Mikimoto stores

$275,000

Oyster's hand-engraved bamboo fly-fishing rod is handsome enough to hang on the wall. oysterbamboo.com

$17,300

Crocodile bag.
After years of embossed leather, a lucky gal deserves the real stuff. armani.com

$14,750

If he thinks his record collection is priceless, this MT5 precision turntable will do. mcintoshlabs.com

$6,500