A BITTER WINTER

The High Bridge Soldiers on 1947

In January 1947, Britain experienced a six-week cold snap that paralysed the country and became known as the "Big Freeze". Snowdrifts blocked roads and railways, cutting off thousands of people from essential supplies.

Despite pipes frozen solid, our High Bridge Café remained open - staff carried in every drop of water by bucket to keep the café functioning.

LINCOLNS
FAVOURITE
FRESHLY ROASTED

Throughout history, coffee has been shrouded in mystery and allure. From shipwrecks to spies, this sturdy brew has survived it all. We've acquired over a century know-how when it comes to coffee, and we have learnt a thing or two about the perfect cup.

You will drink the highest grade beans from the best coffee plantations in the world and we will ensure that each cup we serve will be like no other you have tasted.

HIGH BRIDGE: LINCOLN'S MEDIEVAL MASTERPIECE

Our much loved High Bridge cafe sits on top of a medieval bridge that carries the High Street across the River Witham. It is the oldest bridge in England still to have buildings on it.

The bridge is most notable for its unique design, which features a single ashlar arch with a span of about 22 feet (6.7 metres).
