“P E A C H P A R F A I T”

Morganite is the crown jewel of our collection this season. The beautiful peach coloured gem is one of Anissa's favourites and we're so happy to have gotten to incorporate it in to the designs. Ironically, it is morganite's rarity that keeps the gemstone relatively affordable. As our brand ethos has always been to create accessible luxury jewellery, this made morganite an obvious choice for the season, it is an every-day gem. Its unconventional, delicate peach colour makes the stone a timeless classic, while still presenting a personality. Morganite is often associated with femininity, symbolising purity, love and romance. It engenders a sense of lightness and peace of mind, alleviating anxiety and increasing patience.
