“P E R I O D D R A M A”

Inspired by Anissa's new found obsession with British history and period dramas, each piece has been named after a novel or film from the 17th-19th century, all of which were written or directed by women. Some of the highlights are the “Jane ‘Ear” and “Wuthering Heights” Earrings, plays on the classic novels by Charlotte Brontë. There is also the ‘Blood Sisters’ a pair of freshwater pearl and garnet earrings inspired by the book of the same name, by Jane Corry.

A key feature of the collection is the use of garnets - which is associated with protection, underlying strength and increasing willpower. It was also discovered during design research, that garnets have frequently been used for their healing properties for PMS - hence the name of the collection, Period Drama.

The collection features a range of adjustable vintage inspired rings, cocktail rings, drop earrings and pendant necklaces. All pieces are made from 14k yellow gold, freshwater pearls, diamonds and feature semi-precious stones including garnets, topaz and peridot.
