

MARRIN COSTELLO
WHOLESALE LINESHEET

BRAND STORY

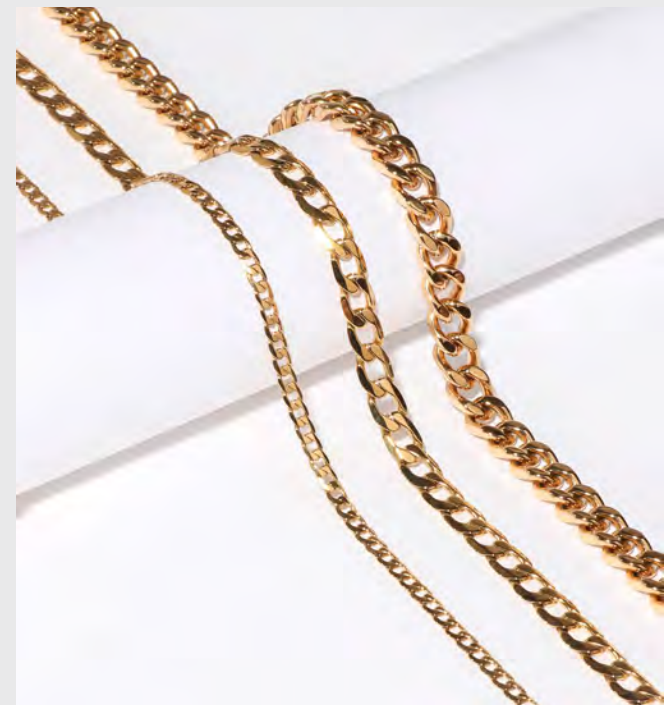

Marrin Costello is an American businesswoman, designer, and brand architect. Her career as a creative began at age seven, after receiving a bead kit for Christmas. Selling her creations at San Francisco Bay Area craft faires and local boutiques while in grammar school, Costello's love for both business and fashion were realized at a very young age.

While studying at UCLA, Costello's creations were featured on American Idol — and a business was born. Less than a decade later, a childhood hobby transformed into a global luxury lifestyle brand — with jewelry at its core. The MC collection has since garnered a cult following of customers, brand ambassadors, and celebrities — and has also been featured in Vogue, In Style, GQ, and Cosmopolitan, among many other publications.

Costello's women-owned-and-operated team is now headquartered in Tampa, Florida. At the center of the MARRIN COSTELLO® brand is a mission to be socially and environmentally conscious, give back, and help people feel fearless and fabulous when they wear the collection. We hope you love your Marrin Costello Jewelry as much as we do —

xx, Marrin + Team MC

AMAZING!

Top notch in every single way! 10/10 recommend, and will be continuing to purchase from them.

- Courtney

The holy grail of hoops and all things chic

The hoops are perfection and look just like the ones that retails $400 on up... trust that everything you order will sell out.

- Nicole
