Lindsay Sherbondy is an artist, wife, mama, and friend living just outside of Madison, Wisconsin with her husband, Dugan, and two young children, Eva and Phoenix. She is an avid ideator and coffee drinker, and the creative visionary behind Lindsay Letters®. Lindsay specializes in abstract acrylic paintings and lettering, and is considered a pioneer in the online art world. Her work can be seen on TV, in stores and magazines, but most importantly, nestled into your homes with the ones you hold most dear.

Lindsay Letters® began as an art and design blog in 2009, and by 2011, it had evolved into the what you'll find at LindsayLetters.Co today. The piece of art you've received was created just for you using The Art Bar®—a unique art customization experience, designed to ensure that you get a piece of art tailored to your unique needs and aesthetic. I hope you love it!

Our prints are created using archival inks on the best quality canvas or luxe paper, and are made to last. We hope that you find an instant heirloom in your Lindsay Letters® art!

At LindsayLetters.Co, we're motivated by our core belief – you are worthy of meaningful art.

Everyone, everywhere, is deserving of beauty, and being around something that feels inspiring to them. Lindsay knows first hand how instantly life can change – from beauty to broken, and back again (albeit slowly). These works are created in the hopes of shedding a little light where there is loss, a little color where there might be darkness, a little levity when things might be hard, and joy and celebration for the good times! Thank you for allowing my work to be a part of your home. Enjoy!
