Covenant:
While we are together at the GYS, we are a community. All communities require parameters to protect the rights of the individual and to ensure the best possible experience for all. Every person attending the GYS will comply with the following:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• We will always treat everyone at the GYS as a Child of God, and we have the right to expect to also be treated this way at all times. This includes the use of personal information shared at Summit (i.e.: home or cell phone #s, social media accounts, emails, etc...) once you have left Summit.</li> <li>• We will be in full attendance at each activity on the planned schedule of the day. Full attendance means removing distractions such as phones, iPods, video games, mp3 players, etc.</li> <li>• We will only be permitted to enter other rooms when invited by the occupants. However, entering rooms of the opposite sex is never permitted.</li> <li>• We may not leave the grounds except as part of a scheduled GYS activity.</li> <li>• The bringing, holding, or use of alcohol, tobacco products, drugs (other than those for which you have a prescription), weapons, or explosives is forbidden.</li> <li>• The primary responsibility for the distribution of prescription medications belongs to the church group leaders in consultation with the summit medic(s).</li> <li>• We will all dress modestly during the summit, including (but not limited to) one-piece (or tankini) bathing suits, no bare midriffs, no inappropriate slogans or artwork on clothing.</li> </ul>
