Covenant:
<ul> <li>While we are together at the GYS, we are a community. All communities require parameters to protect the rights of the individual and to ensure the best possible experience for all. Every person attending the GYS will comply with the following:</li> <li>We will always treat everyone at the GYS as a Child of God, and we have the right to expect to also be treated this way at all times. This includes the use of personal information shared at Summit (i.e.: home or cell phone #s, social media accounts, emails, etc) once you have left Summit.</li> <li>We will be in full attendance at each activity on the planned schedule of the day. Full attendance means removing distractions such as electronic devices.</li> <li>We will only be permitted to enter other rooms when invited by the occupants. However, entering rooms of the other sex is never permitted.</li> <li>We may not leave the grounds except as part of a scheduled GYS activity.</li> <li>The bringing, holding, or use of alcohol, tobacco products, vape equipment, drugs (other than those for which you have a prescription), weapons, or explosives is forbidden.</li> <li>The primary responsibility for the distribution of prescription medications belongs to the church group leaders in consultation with the Summit medic(s).</li> <li>We will all dress modestly during the Summit, including (but not limited to) no bare midriffs, no inappropriate slogans or artwork on clothing.</li> <li>By your signature below you acknowledge that you have read, understand, and will abide by what is listed.</li> </ul>
Youth's Signature	Date	2
Failure to abide by any of these will lead to the participant being sent home at the parents' expense. I understand that my child is responsible for abiding by what is listed above.
