The BOSU® Pro Balance Trainer is currently used in health, fitness, sports conditioning and rehabilitation facilities. It's known industry-wide for balance training, building strength, enhancing flexibility, and delivering killer cardio workouts. This staple in the rehab world challenges the entire body with integrated, multi joint movement that requires muscle groups to work together. Use the BOSU® Pro Balance Trainer dome or platform side down, combine it with other equipment, or use it as a stand-alone product to make any exercise fun, challenging, and effective.
