A WORD ABOUT FIT, FUNCTION & CARE.

These garments are designed to provide a fit that is tailored and performance-oriented. As such, you may find that they feel a little smaller than you might be used to.

Designed in our studio in New Orleans, Louisiana, and tested by athletes across North America, our jerseys have been engineered to perform under all-conditions and are manufactured of the highest quality fabrics and materials from Italy.

Please refer to care tags sewn into garments for specific wash and dry instructions.

As our motto, libertatem ad explorare suggests, we encourage you to explore your world by bicycle and enjoy how you look and feel while doing it. We'll see you out there.
