

Pardon Crucifix

INDULGENCES

Granted by His Holiness, Pope Pius X., to the Pious Union of the Pardon Crucifix, the aim of which is to obtain pardon of God and to pardon one's neighbour.

- 1) Whoever carries on his person the Pardon Crucifix may thereby gain a Partial Indulgence once a day.
- 2) For devoutly kissing the Crucifix, a Partial Indulgence each time.
- 3) Whoever says one of the following invocations before this Crucifix may gain each time a Partial Indulgence: "Our Father who art in heaven, forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." "I beg the blessed Virgin Mary to pray to the Lord our God for me."
- 4) Whoever, habitually devout to this Crucifix, will fulfill the necessary conditions of Confession and Holy Communion, may gain a Plenary Indulgence on the following feasts: The Five Wounds of Our Lord, The Invention of the Holy Cross, The Exaltation of the Holy Cross, The Immaculate Conception, and the Seven Dolours of the Blessed Virgin.

5) Whoever at the moment of death, fortified with the Sacraments of the Church, or contrite of heart, in the supposition of being unable to receive them, will kiss this Crucifix and ask pardon of God for his sins, and pardon his neighbour, will gain a Plenary Indulgence. Pontifical Rescript of June 1, 1905, to MM. the Abbes Lemann. A. CARD. TRIPEPI. Prefect of the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences

To the Faithful, who devoutly kiss this Crucifix and gain these precious Indulgences, we recommend to have in view the following intentions:

To testify love for Our Lord and the Blessed Virgin; gratitude towards our Holy Father, the Pope; to beg for the remission of one's sins; the deliverance of souls in purgatory; the return of the nations to the Faith; forgiveness among Christians; reconciliation among the members of the Catholic Church.

By another Pontifical Rescript of November 14, 1905, His Holiness Pope Pius X, has declared that the Indulgences attached to the Pardon Crucifix are applicable to the souls in purgatory.
