

Animal Testing Declaration

At Silver Health Limited t/a Active Silver, we do not test our products on animals, and we do not support animal cruelty or testing on animals.

We have never conducted animal testing in any phase of product development, and we have never commissioned any outside organisation to do it on our behalf.

We are PETA Certified as a Vegan and Cruelty Free Brand.

We are pleased to state that we formulate and manufacture all our products in house, in a purpose-built laboratory. We have always carefully selected ethical suppliers and believe in buying ingredients only from suppliers who state that they do not test any products on animals or commission animal testing.

- All products are all-natural and help to improve health, skin conditions and other ailments in people and animals.
- All ingredients are vegan so do not contain any animal derived ingredients.
- All products are formulated from the highest quality natural plant oils, plant extracts, and noble metals.
- Vegan friendly and not tested on animals.
- All bottles and jars that are made from glass or plastic and can be recycled.
