OUR BRAND IS BUILT
UPON THE IDEALS WE VALUE THE MOST.
OUR VISION, WHILE INFLUENCED BY EXPOSURE TO MANY LANDS, IS AT ITS CORE, INHERENTLY AFRICAN.

- Nana Boateng

BEGINNINGS

It is on the mountainous region of Kwahu, highest habitable place in Ghana that Bôhten began its journey. Nana Boateng Osei, Founder of Bôhten, had the initiative to use reclaimed material to manufacture an eco-luxury eyewear line.

PROCESS

Inspired by the vision of positive change and the potential of re-using natural resources, Bohten is committed to producing high quality eyeglasses from reclaimed materials.

We source our wood from the heart of West Africa. It is then hand-crafted to our specifications in a zero waste facility in Asia.

A close-up, low-angle portrait of a man's face, focusing on his eyes and nose. He is wearing dark, round-rimmed glasses. His eyes are looking slightly to the left. He has a short, well-groomed beard and mustache. The lighting is soft and warm, creating a professional and focused atmosphere. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Bohten's mission is to develop a compost management initiative that reuses environmentally reclaimed materials to design stylish, timeless eyeglasses.

Through this, we join other bold initiatives seeking to change the face of Africa with a vision that advocates the creation of opportunities and the progression of social and environmental awareness for all.

We hope you join us on this journey.
