

The Sewcial Escape 2017
A Unique Sewing and Embroidery Experience
July 20 - 23, 2017
at The Hampton Inn in Greenville, Texas
Registration fee is $150.00

Join this talented group of educators for 4 days (3 nights) of hands on classes creating adorable boutique style projects. Personal instruction in a small classroom setting will allow everyone to finish the projects with ease while working at their own pace. Kits will be included for each class/project.

You will arrive at The Hampton Inn in Greenville, Texas on Thursday. Check in to the hotel begins at 2:00. This will be a light day for travel, setting up your sewing/embroidery nest in the meeting room and getting to know your fellow retreaters. After dinner, we will have an official meet and greet with the teachers and give you a preview of the projects we will be teaching. Then we will teach a quick in the hoop project to get the party rolling. The sewing room will be open as late as you'd like to work on your sewing projects you've brought from home.

We will have a kitchen (dish towel size) towel swap on Thursday night. Bring an embellished towel featuring a fall theme of your choice. You can decorate the towel with any embroidery design, appliqué, fabric or other materials you wish. Just remember to give a towel you would want to receive. Make sure the towel is concealed in a bag (no peeking). We will draw numbers to swap these pretties. This is a fun, easy way to show off your talent and get a pretty creation in return. However, this is totally optional. For those who wish to not participate in the swap, you will still enjoy watching the ladies ooh and ahh over the pretty towels and plotting how to take home their favorite.

The hotel has a nice complimentary breakfast each day from 6:00 am to 10:00 am. We will supply snacks in the meeting room during the day to help us keep our strength up while working hard on learning from these fabulous teachers. Dinner is not included in the cost of the event. However, there are numerous restaurants within walking distance to the hotel.

Class will begin promptly at 9:30 each morning. This retreat will be filled with oodles of door prizes and fabulous swag bags plus lots of surprises for all attendees. It is an event you won't want to miss.

The Hampton Inn has given us a special room rate for the event. Be sure and tell them you are with The Sewcial Escape group to get the discount. Please call the hotel to book your reservations as they do not have the special discount given to our group online. Save $$$ by sharing a room with a friend.
