“

Back in the 90s I was doing a lot of touring, but also a lot of session work on the side. I would often be on the road but would frequently get called in to do a session. I usually didn't have my drums with me so I would tell the producers 'Bring me whatever kit you want,' and I'd say 90 percent of the time they would bring in Gretsch drums. These are amazing drums and I always wanted them, ever since I was a kid.
