

Icaro Mirror

Designed by Roberto Lazzeroni

Also part of the Icaro collection is an elegant, free-standing mirror, made of finely crafted solid ash and available with natural finish or stained in a number of sophisticated shades. The Icaro mirror is a refined accessory designed to lend style and elegance to many rooms in the home, from the bedroom to the entrance hall.

The Icaro collection also includes a sofa, an armchair, a bed, a bedside unit, a bookcase, a mirror and small tables.

Technical Specifications

1000mm W x 400mm D x 1980mm D

STRUCTURE in solid ash with natural finish or stained ebony, wenge, brown or red, with burnished metal support and mirror. Rests on tips made of thermoplastic material