Content Creator T & Cs

- A content creator is a person who has been approached by A2Z Strength, or who has contacted A2Z Strength directly on their own accord to advertise some form of content that is available for consumption, or for purchase on any of the A2Z Strength media streams.
- This content might be in the form of a course, webinar, video, audio, or article. If this content is to be advertised as a resource for purchase on A2Z Strength, the content creator agrees to pay A2Z Strength a one-off admin fee setup of $50, plus a revenue split for each resource sold.
- This revenue split will be made up of 60% to the creator, 40% to A2Z Strength, with payment automatically paid to the content creator at the end of each month. A full transactional history from the month that's been will also be provided to the content creator.
- For example, if the resource has a RRP of $100, $60 will go to the content creator and $40 will go to A2Z Strength. For a resource to be accepted, a Content Creator Application Form is to be filled out with all of the details of the course attached.
- This application will then go through the screening process to make sure it meets all the standards and regulations that A2Z Strength has set before you will be notified of its acceptance.
- A2Z Strength has the right to cease selling this resource at a moments notice if the need arises, the content creator also has the ability to stop selling their specific resource if 2 weeks written notice has been provided prior to their desired finishing date.
