Portland, OR 2008: where it started.

Welcome to Badge Bomb!

We've been working with our favorite artists to make guilt-free good stuff for people to enjoy since 2008. We're continuing to manufacture products we love and are proud of while reducing our impact on the environment, partnering with organizations that are doing good things, and giving back to our communities! We couldn't do it without the world-class talent of our artist friends, the best sales reps in the biz, our dedicated factory crew, and - of course - you. We hope you love our stuff!

Portland, OR, 2015:
Our custom built factory & HQ.

Welcome to the Desert...

When we're not making buttons and magnets in the Pacific Northwest, we're exploring new places near and far. Our desert collection showcases California's Mojave Desert and beyond, inspired by the backyard of our design house overlooking Joshua Tree National Park. We hope these images of sand, sun, and succulents inspire you, too.

xoxo, Badge Bomb
