You are ordering a custom surfboard!

Our job is to help you decide which board is going to be the best match for your needs and to guide you through the process of putting your personal touch on that board to make it uniquely yours. (Then to build you a board that will bring you many, many years of enjoyment.)

If you already know which model you have your heart set on, that's great! We just need to learn a little bit about you, and a little bit about what you want your surfboard to look like.

If you aren't 100% certain which board model to go with, we have several resource for you:

- Which Surfboard Is Right For You? (PDF)
- Almond's Guide to Longboards
- Which Length Board Should You Order?

Once you know which model you want, it's time to fill out a custom surfboard order form. The basics of what we need to know are:

- Your Name
- Your Height / Weight / Age
- Model:
- Length:
- Stringer Configuration (One, Two, or Three):
- Color(s):
- Stripes or Custom Resin Work:
- Finish (Sanded Matte or Glossy Polished):

Our aim is to build a custom board that is a perfect blend of our methods and techniques and your personal style. (Most importantly, a surfboard that allows you to have the most fun in the lineup for the most number of years). By the nature of surfboard building, some things might look complicated but be fairly straight-forward to do. In contrast, some things may appear simple, but because of the process are extremely difficult to execute.

ALMOND COLOR WHEEL

When choosing a color for your surfboard, keep in mind the colors are hand-mixed by talented laminators. It is a process that is much more art than science. Slight color variations will occur—which is part of the beauty of a hand-built surfboard.

When you are finished filling out your order form, snap a photo of it or scan it and email it to:

info@almondsurfboards.com

Deposit:
Custom surfboard orders require a 50% deposit to get started.
We will email you an invoice to pay the deposit, and get your board entered into our system.
The balance is due when the board is finished.

Timeline:
Our goal is to complete custom orders in approximately 8 weeks. Keep in mind that timeline will vary based on the complexity of the board and glass job. The glass shop inevitably gets busier in the Summer and leading up to the Holiday season.

We check on boards every Thursday, so shoot us a note and we will try our best to provide an update.

Local Pickup:
If your board is local pickup, we will call you when it's ready to go, and you can pick your new surfboard up at our shop:

Almond Surf Shop
1720 Santa Ana Ave, #A
Costa Mesa, CA

Shipping Custom Surfboards:
If your board requires shipping, we will contact you when the board is finished to arrange a shipping quote. Keep in mind that custom surfboards require building a custom shipping box and a commercial freight quote. Custom surfboard shipping takes about a week or two to arrange and deliver after the board is complete. Shipping costs vary by region and season.
