

NEWSLETTER FEBRUARY 2016

Events – The next coffee morning will take place on Wednesday 10th February. Fiona Ringwood will be joining us with a selection of Neal's Yard products which she will demonstrate and sell. Start your year well with some of these lovely smellies!

Coming up – Valentine's Day!! We have lots of lovely stock for that one special person. Pop in or have a look online at <http://www.theautismtrust.org.uk/collections/all>.

Donations - Visit our Just Giving page <http://campaign.justgiving.com/charity/theautismtrust/lightsondoorsopen> to help keep us going. Every little helps please support us!

Also – download the easyfundraising toolbar <https://www.easyfundraising.org.uk/causes/autismtrust/> and every time you shop online, they will donate a percentage to us! Easy peasy!! Every penny does count.

Volunteers – Are you a parent or grandparent with a free morning or afternoon (or more!) each week or even just occasionally? Do you fancy volunteering with us? We'd love to hear from you, lots of various activities going on! Get in touch using the information below for an application form.

Contact – www.theautismtrust.org.uk
info@theautismtrust.org.uk
01276 63578
12a – 18a Princess Way, Camberley,

Left – a pretty heart designed by Vix Bates, a talented young artist with autism.

Right – one of Elaine Alexander's pretty wooden hearts. She makes these to support her son and husband, both have Asperger's.

