Negroni mania!

The classic Italian cocktail is getting shaken and stirred. During Negroni Week, June 1–7, participating bars and restaurants around the country are serving up all kinds of takes on the tiple and donating at least $1 from each sale to a charity of choice. BY ERIN MEISTER

The Negroni pie at Brooklyn's Butter & Scotch stars a custard of Campari, gin and vermouth. (butterandscotch.com)

For a dessert of pillow-soft Negroni marshmallows, hit Cambridge, MA's Ames Street Deli. (amesstreetdeli.com)

SERVE YOURSELF

To make a classic Negroni, stir equal parts Campari, gin and sweet vermouth in an ice-filled rocks glass (strain to serve if you wish). Garnish with orange peel.

Gin-flavored ice cream meets vermouth, Campari and Cheerwine in the Cheergroni float at Chuck's in Raleigh, NC. (ac-restaurants.com/chucks)

The Negroni pop at San Francisco's Humphry Slocombe blends the cocktail's spirits with grapefruit juice. (humphryslocombe.com)
