WHY SHE DISAPPEARED

After bad breakups, fan backlash and a feud with Kimye, Swift went into hiding — but now she's planning a big comeback

1 MATTIFYING LOTION
Banana Boat's SPF 50 formula is water-resistant up to 80 minutes and dries to a soft, powderlike finish. Bonus: It smells like a piña colada! ($9, drugstores)

2 SOLID SERUM
Hyaluronic acid and collagen in this full-coverage SPF 50+ compact — available in seven shades — moisturizes, plumps fine lines and evens skin tone. Olivia Munn is a fan of the brand. ($38, itcosmetics.com)

3 DRY SHAMPOO
Quinoa extract in Bare Republic's powder spritz strengthens strands and shields color from UV rays, while kaolin clay purifies the scalp. ($14, target.com)

4 LIP SALVE
With SPF 30, this coconut and shea butter-packed gelée glides on without a trace of stickiness and tastes like peppermint. ($22, homptonsuncare.com)

5 AFTER-SUN TREATMENT
This amino acid and mango butter cream from the label loved by Mandy Moore drenches parched skin cells on the face and body. ($36, jurlique.com)

6 SETTING POWDER
Supergoop's translucent SPF 45 brush-on micronized mineral powder acts like a photo filter, minimizing the appearance of pores. ($30, sephora.com)

7 SOOTHING MIST
Ideal for sensitive skin types, chamomile extract-infused SPF 30 calms and cools. Bonus: The 2.7-oz can slips in a carry-on. Jourdan Dunn uses the line. ($18, pixibeauty.com)

8 BODY MILK
Spokesmodel Amanda Seyfried slathers arms and legs with the K-Beauty-inspired fluid emulsion, which contains skin-brightening silk and pearl extracts. ($90, cledepeaubeaute.com)

9 SHEER MOUSSE
Yep, Coppertone's Clearly Sheer Whipped Sunscreen sprays on like cake frosting (translation: fun for the kids). The non-greasy SPF 50 absorbs quickly and doesn't leave behind any white residue. ($11, target.com)

10 TINTED MOISTURIZER
This SPF 30 cream in a universally flattering tint from Drunk Elephant, a brand Gwyneth Paltrow adores, hides dark spots. Grape juice extract defends skin from free radicals. ($36, sephora.com)

It's all right: Cool SPF innovations for the face, hair and body prove there's safety in numbers
