Miss Connie

Now girls before we get into our canoes, I want to remind you to obey all water safety rules we have discussed! Are your life jackets on and secure? Then into your canoes girls and have fun! Oh there is one change will Lizzie Baker please move to canoe #3 and Jane Wells to canoe #5?

Mom

You know Lizzie I really missed your baking talents in the bakery. I can't wait to have your company back and the sugar drop cookies aren't the same without your sweet touch.

Wow Lizzie, I can hardly believe how well your practicing is going, Mr. Conover says he has never seen anyone improve so fast, never ever as long as he has been teaching piano. Lizzie do you smell something burning? Quick honey, the oven! I've never known you to burn cookies in your life! How about we let the house air out and go to the beach, get some practice on your surf board?

Dad

I apologize for not meeting you at the airport. Lotte and I had a date at the Statue of Liberty. For some reason she has just been begging me to take her....we've been there before and she wanted to go to the Empire State Building too, she was so excited you'd think it was the first time she'd been there.

I've been thinking more about Florida, you know get away on the beach, fresh ocean air...away from all this, the big city...rent a cottage maybe.

Maybe never. Twin girls you know, not any time soon. You know we are expected to be at the Season Gala tonight no excuses. The toast of the Symphony's biggest contributors, I'm expected to be there. Jolene needs to be there, you know how she lights up a room, really Dillworth I'm useless without her!

Dillworth

Well the babies were pitching cries in it at about a high E and the baby sitter has left her high and dry...and it might not be the smartest things for your wife to bring, no matter how beautiful they are, two crying babies with her to the Gala...she's asked you to go on without her. And all of the demands not enough rest it became too much. They split up and each took a baby girl...and our Lotte needs her Mum not that Geogiepuddin'- in-pie creature from the Black Lagoon...but what's to be done?

The Twins*Option #1*

There is this terrible woman that Dad's ask to marry him... so she can be our mom! She's been chasing him forever. She pretends to like me and really doesn't love Dad at all. She wants our fancy apartment and to call herself the wife of the conductor of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra! This is a disaster!

Option #2

Nothing, nothing's going Dad we were just playing in the sand with our sand buckets. We were just showing Georgie the finer points of surfen' in fact we are taking her out to the waves right now. She wants to show you how much she loves the ocean, don't you Georgie? She knows how much you love the ocean and wants to be come acquainted with surfen' just to make you happy Dad.

Option #3

First turn on the oven 475 degrees. I've got to prove I can do this baking business or Auntie will see through me. To my secret note book and the cookie recipe Lizzie wrote down. Sugar Drop Cookies. You can do this Lotte, your identity is riding on eggs, flour, sugar, soda or baking powder or baking soda, what's the difference? and salt---looking good Lizzie, looking good. Now just to spoon this one should do nicely. Scoop on to sheet and bake!
