

CleanPatch Expands into Sweden with Salubrious AB

November 8th 2016 – Surface Medical Inc. (“SMI”) announced today that it has launched its CleanPatch® product line into the Swedish market in partnership with Salubrious AB. CleanPatch is now available in four European countries including the United Kingdom, Ireland, Denmark and Sweden.

Founded in 2000, Salubrious AB (“Salubrious”) sells and distributes quality products from all over the world to the Scandinavian healthcare market. Salubrious has a team of knowledgeable sales staff and technicians who provide training, service and support to their customers. In addition to Salubrious’ own brands FLAG, Stana and GoodGel, Salubrious also carries many top of the line products from other manufactures.

“SMI has identified Sweden as an important healthcare market with a strong focus on infection control practices,” comments Martin Rodnight, International Sales at SMI. “Salubrious is a leading independent European distributor of medical devices. As a specialist provider of innovative medical devices with a strong foothold in the Swedish market, it is the ideal partner for SMI in Sweden.”

“We look forward to bringing this innovative solution to the Swedish market”, comments Anders Good, Chief Executive Officer at Salubrious. “We are constantly on the lookout for new, innovative quality products for our markets, and CleanPatch is a very good example of this.”

Salubrious complements existing CleanPatch distribution and will increase product access to Swedish healthcare customers.
