

My Bird Watching Checklist

How many birds can you spot? Tick off and tally up each bird you see. Can you find them all?

Red breast, loud song, and brown wings and tail.

Males are all black, while females are dark brown. Both have yellow beaks.

Speckled white and brown belly with brown wings. Bigger than a blackbird.

Blue head, yellow belly and white patches on the face. Very small.

Beige and white belly, with white and black wings and face. Very fluffy.

Brown white with a red patch on the face, and a yellow stripe on the belly.

Black and white wings, beige belly and red cap on the head.

Black and white, with a red patch under the tail.

Beige, with a brown head and fluffy plumage. Small with a loud song.

A yellowish green colour, with yellow stripes on the wings. Brightly coloured

Beige with blue stripes on the wings, and black edges on the wings and tail.