Full of firsts for Status Anxiety, and as the range name suggests, 'Inertia' (SS18) is defined by a state of uninterrupted motion and evolution. This season sees Status Anxiety expand into new categories, such as timepieces, tech, and travel, all whilst continuing in the brand's established minimalist aesthetic.

Status Anxiety — Damn fine leather goods, for a life lived simply.

Status Anxiety is about worrying less on measuring up to other's perceptions of success. It's a life lived simply, with a focus on things that last and that don't cost the earth. Likewise, our goods are about simplicity of design, functionality and attitude. We'd rather let the leather's awesomeness do the talking.

Flabbergasting - Good word isn't it? Sort of happy and shocking at the same time. Here's some womens leather wallets that have been putting the flabber back in people's gasts for a little while now. Every wallet with our logo on it, is made with the goodness of full grain Italian or French leather.

WALLETS

We know as a guy you're pretty keen on building one wallet and using it until the world ends or you die (whichever comes first).

The Status Anxiety wallet range is handmade from top-notch, won't fall apart European leathers and sweet details hidden compartments and our dangerously slim snap coin pouch.

Built to last... no pressure, choose wisely.

QUIN-
TON

You'd better believe it. The Quinton wallet comes out of our efforts to make the slimmest full function bifold wallet in the world. Mission accomplished (perhaps).
