It always seems impossible until it’s done.

In 1918, a boy named Rolihlahla was born in the countryside of South Africa. This boy would grow up to fight against discrimination and his country’s cruel system of apartheid. He would make many sacrifices. He would spend 27 years in prison for his beliefs. He would, however, go on to help end apartheid in South Africa and become president of his country. This is the incredible story of Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela.
The Dinner
An evening in Amsterdam and two couples meet for dinner. They need to discuss their teenage sons. The boys have committed a horrifying act that was caught on CCTV. They remain unidentified – except by their parents. How far will each couple go to protect their child? The Dinner is a gripping psychological tale of grief, shame, blame, doubt, and pride passed on from one generation to the next. This book will raise debates over many issues, including family values and political convictions.

Untouchable
Abdel, an Algerian immigrant living in a Paris slum, applies for a job as carer to wealthy quadriplegic Philippe, so that he can continue to claim benefits. Despite his lack of qualifications, he lands the job because of his attitude. As Abdel reluctantly learns to move, feed, and clean Philippe, the two men discover a blunt but vital humour that not only bridges the cultural and class divide between them, but gives Philippe a renewed joy in life. This book challenges people’s perceptions of disability.

Graphic Shakespeare

» Retold by Hilary Burningham

The titles in the Graphic Shakespeare series are an ideal introduction to Shakespeare's plays, but can equally well be used as revision aids. The main characters and key events are brought to life in the simplified story and dramatic pictures, and the short extracts from the original plays focus on key speeches in Shakespeare's language. A portrait gallery of key characters provides an easy reference.

• An ideal way to explore the past
• Newspaper-style layout is great for drawing in more reluctant readers
• Vivid drawings capture the key events and figures
• New words and expressions that came into popular usage are detailed
• Features bibliography, glossary and index

Extent 64pp | Price £6.99

Excellent study guides - for teachers too!
The scene commentaries and characterisation notes are excellent. It has even helped by making me think of avenues into the text and wider contexts I had not yet considered. Highly recommended.

Anansi the Spider

A West African God

The story of Anansi the Spider originates from the Ashanti people of Ghana and is one of the best-known of the tales they took with them when they were taken captive during the slave trade. In the Caribbean, Anansi is often celebrated as a symbol of slave resistance and survival. Anansi is a rogue, a mischief-maker, and a wise but lovable creature who triumphs over larger foes.

ISBN  |  9781783225415
Level 1: Robins
The stories don't exceed 50 words and are ideal for first readers, covering a range of genres including humour and fantasy, rhyming stories and stories from a range of cultures supporting literacy requirements at foundation stage.

Level 2: Redstarts
Written in consultation with reading specialists, Redstarts are fun rhyming stories for young children just beginning to read.
Level 3: Magpies

Magpies provide a range of stories using high frequency words, repetition and rich language for children who are starting to enjoy reading.

Level 4: Swifts

A series of short, colourfully illustrated fiction for newly independent readers. Very new readers might tackle a chapter at a time, while more independent readers would be happy to read a complete story in one sitting.

Level 5: Skylarks

Skylarks is a series of fiction books, divided into chapters, which cover a wide range of genres from adventure, humour and fairy tale to fantasy, mystery and science fiction. Each story comprises approximately 2,000 words, broken into 7 or 8 chapters and illustrated in full colour with a range of artwork styles, with one or two images per spread. This series will take young independent readers into ‘real books’.

Outstanding Children’s Books That Help You Discover The World Around You
Anita Ganeri retells the traditional stories of world religion festivals with her usual sensitivity and gift for drawing children into the narrative.

Exquisite watercolour illustrations breathe warmth and life into the story. Suggestions for activities are included in every book, as well as special recipes that children will enjoy trying out.
A series of richly illustrated stories from each of the six main faith traditions.

- Each title contains 7–10 stories, carefully chosen in association with experts from that faith
- Illustrative styles reflect the faith traditions
- Fact boxes give further information
- Also includes colour photographs
Families and their Faiths

Families and their Faiths is a first introduction to cultures and faiths around the world. Each book focuses on a young child and is narrated by a grandparent.

- Stunning photographs taken on-location as the photographer and author lived with the local communities.
- Notes for parents and teachers.
- A contribution from the sale of each book is given back to the communities featured.

Free teacher resources on the authors' website: www.hckidsbooks.com
Feelings

This warm and sensitive series is about feelings and emotions, with an emphasis on expressing – and learning to manage – these feelings.

- Activities at the back of the book provide opportunities for picture matching, trying out sign-language and role play.
- Lovely bright illustrations and photographs throughout.
- Large format is ideal for sharing.
This gentle introduction to how our lives are organised according to time makes a perfect starting point for introducing this core concept.

- Times of the day, times of the year and the passing of time are all explored.
- A ‘window on the world’ feature shows children what is happening at different times of the day for other people.
Side by Side

Side by Side is a fabulous new series which deals with dramatic and significant events in young children's lives. Wonderful, sensitive pictures are sure to appeal to small children trying to cope with difficult situations.

- Ideal for parents to share with their young children to dispel their fears.
- Reassuring message means these books will be revisited again and again.
