Clearspring Launches Organic Japanese Ramen Kits

A light yet satisfying snack from Clearspring

Clearspring, the authentic Japanese and organic fine foods brand, have launched Organic Ramen kits. Available in two delicious authentic flavours, Miso Ginger and Soya Sauce, this is a perfect dish for people with busy lives who need a quick and healthy meal without compromising on taste.

Ramen (a traditional Japanese noodle soup dish) is a widely popular dish eaten by noodle fans around the globe. Clearspring Organic Ramen Noodles are expertly crafted to give the best flavour and texture by combining carefully selected semi wholewheat and brown rice flours. They're then steamed, rather than fried in oil, making them wonderfully low in fat.

Ready in just four minutes, the noodles are ideal for a light lunch or satisfying snack. You could even add a selection of your favourite vegetables and diced Clearspring tofu to create a filling mid-week meal.

The soup base comes in two different flavours, Miso Ginger and Soya Sauce, and dissolves instantly in water to make a rich, smooth soup with a fresher taste than powdered varieties. The soya sauce soup is made using authentic organic Japanese soya sauce, unrefined Atlantic sea salt and rice malt syrup instead of refined sugar. The miso ginger soup is a rich mix of brown rice miso, mirin, ginger and garlic purees, kombu (a type of sea vegetable), soya sauce and toasted sesame oil. Both varieties are 100% vegetarian and vegan, organic and free of any artificial additives.
