

Honey & Roses Coffee Co. Curates the Ultimate At-Home Cafe Experience

The ecommerce marketplace partners with independent coffee roasters, bakers, chocolatiers and eco-friendly artisans to bring the cafe experience directly to homes nationwide.

NEW YORK CITY (APRIL 15, 2021) — Honey & Roses Coffee Co. is an ecommerce marketplace that delivers premium cafe items straight to home kitchens. The brand sources quality products from nearly 80 independent businesses including world-class roasters, bakers, chocolatiers and craftsmen from across the US and beyond. Through the platform, customers can choose from more than 350 premium coffee blends, an array of delicious baked goods and eco-friendly homeware.

Starting out as a website to purchase sustainably and ethically sourced craft coffee, Honey & Roses Coffee Co. has morphed into a highly-trafficked marketplace with three product groups: Coffee, Homeware and Sweet & Treats. Honey & Roses Coffee Co. partners exclusively with independent businesses and artisans who practice ethical trade. Each product and partner on the platform promotes a community-positive and sustainable lifestyle. As a digital one-stop-shop for beloved cafe items, Honey And Roses Coffee Co. features various products that are only one click away. Customers can search for a wide range of items like eco-friendly K-Cups, mother-watering baked goods, variety-pack gift boxes, flavorful coffee blends, seasonal baskets, handcrafted brass spoons, reusable mugs and plenty more.

Honey & Roses Coffee Co. was founded in 2019 by Ella Jesmajian and Joe Whiteside. As an entrepreneurial duo, Ella and Joe have skills that complement each other and have propelled the company to success. Under their leadership, the brand has grown its user base by 39% year-to-date.
