About the Kerygma Program

Making a Difference

The Kerygma Program supports and invigorates Bible study in congregations and communities. Those using Kerygma resources note the “exceptional scholarly quality made accessible to all” that makes Kerygma studies “deeply satisfying.”

Kerygma resources take study groups to the heart of our deepest questions about the relevance of faith and the role of the Bible in our time. The comfort, guidance, hope, and courage provided through the study of Scripture are needed by present and future generations as much as they have ever been.

Kerygma’s Approach to Bible Study

The Kerygma Program’s quality resources invigorate faith and challenge minds, helping to transform and revitalize Bible study within congregations and communities. With Kerygma, participants and leaders:

- Learn the basics and complexities of the Bible
- Develop skills for interpreting Scripture
- Apply learning from the Bible to life in today’s world

The success of the Kerygma approach to adult Bible study is found in enthusiastic members of study groups, making the Bible relevant, promoting Christian growth in individuals and communities.

Each Kerygma study offers —

A Resource Book for participants as well as the leader(s). Written by a scholar in a “reader-friendly” style, the Resource Book is designed for personal study prior to the group session.

A Leader’s Guide accompanies the Resource Book, providing strategies to engage study participants in active learning. Our Leader’s Guides offer a rich variety of learning strategies and multiple options for session planning. It allows the leader to be a facilitator and a learner among learners. The Leader’s Guide is designed to create opportunities that encourage discussion and dialogue within a community of learners that illuminate the Biblical materials.

The Leader Kit — Everything the Leader needs! The Leader kit includes a printed copy of the Resource Book and a Leader’s Guide, with digitized leader material on Disc or Flash.

PARABLES Stories for Life in God's World

Parables—short, seemingly simple stories that are intriguing, memorable, life changing. Jesus was the master of the parable, crafting and telling these stories that some scholars regard as the heart of the gospel message. Participants will examine what makes a parable unique and will study 30+ of these stories to begin to understand and appreciate why the parables of Jesus can continue to affect what we value and the choices we make.

Your Bible! The Study Begins

Resource Book by James A. Walther, Sr.; Leader's Guide by Barbara Anne Keely

7 Sessions

An introduction to the Bible that paves the way for future study and deeper understanding. Designed to help participants understand how the Bible came to be, what the Old and New Testaments are about, how we study the Bible and consider its place in our lives.

In seven, one-hour sessions, participants will explore:

- What Is the Bible?
- How did the Bible come to be?
- What Is the Old Testament about?
- What Is the New Testament about?
- How Has the Bible been preserved and handed on?
- How shall we study the Bible?
- What is the place of the Bible in our lives?

Listening to Scripture: Strategies for Interpreting the Bible

Resource Book by Richard L. Rohrbaugh; Leader's Guide by John Mehl

8 Sessions

Introducing six strategies that enable learners to understand the meaning of Scripture for its original audience. Learning what the text meant is the first step in exploring what the text means and its message for us as Christians today.

Strategies include:

- Exploring the historical setting
- Discovering the literary context and audience
- Identifying oral and literary forms
- Analyzing the structure
- Investigating words and phrases.

Discovering the Bible: A New Generation

Resource Book and Leader's Guide by Boyd E. Lien

An introduction to the Bible, both Old and New Testaments, inviting adults to explore biblical people, events, ideas, and places through reading, reflection, discussion, creative expression, and discovery.

- An ideal resource for those new to the Scriptures or who want an overview of the entire Bible before taking on studies of individual books of the Bible.
- One approach used by some study groups is to begin with the New Testament, starting with material that may be more familiar, and then study the Old Testament—an approach that is similar to the way that many in the early church were introduced to the gospel and to the entire story of God's work and purpose for God's world.

Excellent resource for use in a mid-week or Sunday morning program providing an overview of the entire Bible. The Leader Kit includes the Leader's Guide PDF, a Slide Presentation, and short Video segments from the author to enhance each session.

Great Themes of the Bible

Great Themes of the Bible

Resource Books by James A. Walther, Sr.; Leader Guides by Myra B. Nagel & Trish Towle Greeves

Four studies that focus on great themes from the Old and New Testaments and expand on themes found in The Bible in Depth.

God Saves a People

7 sessions

Traces the saving grace of God from the Exodus, the wanderings, and the Kingdom's rise and fall, on to God's new act of salvation through Jesus, into the early church. Follow the sweep of the story and marvel at the mighty acts of God yet today!

Knowing God

7 Sessions

God's people carried questions about their Creator which are mirrored in the Scriptures. They wondered: What is God's true nature? Can we trust God to be loving, fair, and just? How can we know the unknowable God? We wonder, too! We explore these and other questions which shape our faithful inquiry today.

God Is Faithful

7 Sessions

At the heart of the Bible's story is a relationship between God and people, sparked by God's initiative, sustained by God's promise, and sealed in covenant terms. Track the narrative as God holds steady while the people struggle to keep faith and fulfill their mission in God's world. The covenant relationship is explored from Abraham through Moses, David, the Prophets, and with Jesus—calling us to renew our place among God's loyal people.

God Calls Leaders

7 Sessions

Inspired leaders make a difference in the unfolding biblical drama. Understanding how God worked through the lives of the patriarchs, prophets, Jesus and the apostles will light the path for new leaders who will continue the journey.

Studies for Advent and Lent

The Light Will Shine: A Study for Advent

Resource Book and Leader's Guide by Carol J. Miller

5 Sessions
4 - Advent
1 - Epiphany

An excellent study focusing on three important seasons of the church year—Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany. Consider big questions that biblical events point toward:

- Where is history headed?
- How does our focus on the future God promises impact the present?
- Why is Messiah coming and what is he announcing?
- Who is John the Baptist and what messages did he bring?
- What is the annunciation?
- What is the significance of Mary's song, the Magnificat, as Luke records it?
- What does the word "epiphany" mean and what does it say to a world that continues to search for meaning?

Hosanna: A Spiritual Journey through Holy Week

Resource Book and Leader's Guide by Carol J. Miller

5 Sessions

Explore the main texts in all four Gospels and in Paul's writings relating to the last week of Jesus' life and resurrection. The Gospel writers help us to see who Jesus Christ is and what God is doing in and through him. With writings that pre-date the Gospels, Paul is the first New Testament writer to mention the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus. He is the only writer we know to have witnessed the risen Christ.

ISAIAH—IN 3 PARTS

Part I Holy, Holy, Holy

Resource Book and Leader's Guide by Boyd Lien

A study focusing on the first 39 chapters of an important book to both Old and New Testament communities. Explore the ways that Isaiah communicated God's message through images and metaphors, sounds and words. See and hear the word of God through the faithful witness of this prophet as he reveals what God would say to us—with reverence, compassion, and an imagination that our image-oriented culture can appreciate. Two Studies in One Book!

Part II—Do Not Be Afraid!

Resource Book and Leader's Guide by Boyd Lien

ISAIAH—Do Not Be Afraid! focuses on chapters 40-55. Hear the word of the Lord to Jewish exiles in Babylon after the collapse of all that they had known. The prophet speaks of God's grace offered in response to the people's pain and lament. Once again Rev. Boyd Lien calls upon participants to focus on the image-rich language used in these chapters.

An excellent study for Lent and Eastertide. Many passages from Isaiah 40-55 are included in lectionary readings during these seasons of the church year.

ISAIAH—Your Light Has Come, concludes with chapters 56-66. Returning exiles and those who stayed behind struggle to reestablish a community. How will all God's people come together to share in God's future? Isaiah speaks of God reaching out to all nations and communicates God's promises, capturing the attention and imagination of a struggling community—and eventually a New Testament community that records Jesus reading from Isaiah 61 to identify himself and his mission.

Once again, study participants focus on the image-rich language in these chapters of Isaiah, considered to be among the most beautiful passages in Scripture.

PARABLES: Stories for Life in God's World

Resource Book and Leader's Guide by Richard J. Henderson

The parables of Jesus appear to be simple stories that make a moral point. As we understand them and their complexity, however, we find an expanding richness and depth. Just when we think we have fully understood the parable, a window opens and we see a broader and more profound meaning. In this study we explore the depth of the parables and how they apply to our everyday lives. In addition to a thorough understanding of these unique stories, this study touches on the power of parables in the Old Testament as well as those by authors in more recent times.

A great study to use as a Lenten series, for a series on the meaning of discipleship, or for workshops on faith and writing.

Galatians & James: Faith and Works

Resource Book and Leader's Guide by Carol J. Miller

11 Sessions
7 - Galatians
4 - James

Two small—but mighty!—studies tackle one of the most contentious issues in theology: what are the roles of faith (grace) and works when it comes to salvation?

GALATIANS

Paul writes to Christians being pressured to maintain tokens of the church's Jewish heritage, dietary laws, and rituals—proclaiming loud and clear that we are saved by grace alone and not by adherence to the Mosaic Law.

JAMES

While agreeing with Paul that salvation is found solely through Christ, James writes with absolute conviction that concern and care for one's neighbor fulfills the law. Did Paul's words about grace mean that disciples could neglect their obligation to aid their suffering brothers and sisters? How would a modern James indicate that "they will know we are Christians by our love"?

The Book of Revelation: All Creation's Hallelujah

New Edition

Resource Book and Leader's Guide by Robert A Bryant

10 Sessions

The Revelation to John—the last book of the Bible, and sometimes the first book to capture eyes and ears of people and cultures across time. This study enables groups to learn together about messages to first century (CE) churches and how these speak to churches today. Explore visions conveyed in apocalyptic style that provoke faithful wonder and how symbols and metaphors illustrate God's character and purpose as well as the consequences of evil. Study the ways in which prophecy conveys what matters to God and what Christians need to do to remain faithful to the teachings of Jesus, the Messiah and Savior of the world, and to respect God's loving care for all creation.
