Kerygma resources are written from a Reformed theological perspective and are used by many denominations.

Each Kerygma study includes:

A RESOURCE BOOK for each participant and leader—designed for personal study prior to the group session.

A LEADER’S GUIDE, to accompany the Resource Book, with strategies to engage a group of participants in active learning. Allows the leader to be a facilitator and a learner among learners.

Part II, DO NOT BE AFRAID!

Part III, YOUR LIGHT HAS COME

Resource Book and Leader’s Guide by Boyd Lien

Both studies are included in one Resource Book.

ISAIAH—Do Not Be Afraid! focuses on chapters 40-55. Hear the word of the Lord to Jewish exiles in Babylon after the collapse of all that they had known. The prophet speaks of God’s grace offered in response to the people’s pain and lament. Once again Rev. Boyd Lien calls upon participants to focus on the image-rich language used in these chapters.

An excellent study for Lent and Eastertide. Many passages from Isaiah 40-55 are included in lectionary readings during these seasons of the church year.

ISAIAH—Your Light Has Come, concludes with chapters 56-66. Returning exiles and those who stayed behind struggle to reestablish a community. How will all God’s people come together to share in God’s future? Isaiah speaks of God reaching out to all nations and communicates God’s promises, capturing the attention and imagination of a struggling community—and eventually a New Testament community that records Jesus reading from Isaiah 61 to identify himself and his mission.

Having fixed our sight upon Jesus Christ, Paul encourages us to have the mind of Christ, affecting the way we value ourselves, others, and our world. Believers are encouraged to value every contribution that strengthens the community of faith. Having the mind of Christ radiates humility and peace, individually and corporately.

Another BIG IDEAS IN SMALL BOOKS publication—two studies in one book!

Galatians & James: Faith and Works
Resource Book and Leader’s Guide by Carol J. Miller

Two small—but mighty!—studies tackle one of the most contentious issues in theology: what are the roles of faith (grace) and works when it comes to salvation?

GALATIANS
Paul writes to Christians being pressured to maintain tokens of the church’s Jewish heritage, dietary laws, and rituals—proclaiming loud and clear that we are saved by grace alone and not by adherence to the Mosaic Law.

JAMES
While agreeing with Paul that salvation is found solely through Christ, James writes with absolute conviction that concern and care for one’s neighbor fulfills the law. Did Paul’s words about grace mean that disciples could neglect their obligation to aid their suffering brothers and sisters? How would a modern James indicate that “they will know we are Christians by our love”?
